Stroll through yesteryear on sweet streets named Chocolate and Cocoa. Discover life as we once knew it...the Hershey Transit Company, the Hershey Department Store, the Cocoa Inn, the Hershey Swimming Pool, the Milton Hershey School, Hershey High School, the Pennsylvania State Police Rodeo, Hershey Sports Arena and Hershey Park, to name a few. Milton S. Hershey and his wife Catherine (Kitty) permeate the Museum with personal memorabilia, clothing and photographs.

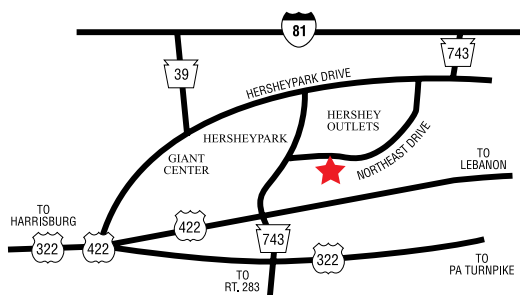

Explore the rich history of Hershey and Derry Township with over 50,000 artifacts dating back to the 1700's. Communities of the past come back to life through mounted photo wall exhibits of historic buildings. On display are photographs, post cards, early farm implements, household utensils and fashions of by-gone eras. Peek into the past of Hershey Chocolate with candy molds, tins, early advertising and chocolate making equipment.
